

Leaders

Charles Hendrickson, Chairman

Charles Hendrickson, Chairman, also serves as President and CEO of Capital Services, sister company of Capital Prepaid Services. He has been with the organization since 2000, when he joined Capital Services as CFO. He led the initiative that resulted in Capital Services' industry-leading ViPRSM system and championed in-house development of Capital's unique scorecard and statistical analysis competencies.

Hendrickson began his career in public accounting with McGladrey and Pullen and later held a bankcard finance role at Citibank before his tenure in commercial banking.

Michelle Mueller, Chief Financial Officer

Michelle Mueller, who has been with Capital Services since 2001, is responsible for overseeing all accounting functions, including analyzing daily financial activity and monthly financials, evaluating internal controls, coordinating financial audits and overseeing correspondent banking relationships. She has over 20 years of experience as a controller.

Michael Olafson, Vice President

Michael Olafson, Vice President has been with Capital Prepaid Services since 2014. Previously he held several leadership positions at Wells Fargo in the community banking and commercial lending areas. Mike holds an MBA from National American University and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northern State University.